- We maintain an organic growth in sales of 5.5%.
 - The inorganic effect of the year is concentrated in this business segment; with investments in ZH Engineers and Gesthidro (+10.7M€) and the inorganic/one-off effect of lower device sales following business restructuring (-45.6M€ in 4Q).
- The profit margins on sales improved by 1% compared to 2022, thanks to:
 - The focus on businesses with higher returns. Environmental Services provides good margins with its taxonomic activities.
 - To the decline of activities with reduced or zero margins, such as the sale of mobile devices.
 - One-off effects are concentrated in this segment (-5 M€), so the recurring profitability of the segment is even higher (12.0% recurring contribution margin)."
- We maintain a high recurrence rate, strengthening the defensive nature of the segment.
